By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—A fanatic right-wing student today assassinated the Socialist party chairman, Ichiro Asanuma, an avowed friend of Communist China and the militant leader of Japanese opposition to the U. S.-Japan alliance.

The assassin, a slender Olaya Yamaguchi, 17, stabbed Asanuma twice with a foot-long sword as Asanuma spoke to a political forum on clean campaign practices. Members of the audience hurled the youth to the floor and carried him off to police headquarters.

A leftist throng of 10,000 marched on police headquarters and then on the official residence of Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda, demanding Ikeda's resignation. They shouted "Down with terrorism."

A few of the marchers broke windows in an ineffectual attempt to break into police headquarters but otherwise there was no violence. The demonstrators began to disperse after a Cabinet official received leaders of the leftist labor federation Shoyu and told them the government would proceed with firmness.

Police reported that the young killer confessed he had plotted the assassination for the past three days and said he had no accomplices. Police said he told them Asanuma was a traitor who was trying to sell Japan to the Communists.

Asanuma was hurried to a hospital where he died of two chest wounds, one of them close to the heart.

The assassin was a former member of the ultranationalist Greater Japan Patriotic Society. Members of the extremist Zengakuren Student Association and of the big left-wing labor federation Shoyu-Asanuma's comrades.

Arms in demonstrations against the new U.S.-Japan security treaty last spring led the march on the station.

They carried placards proclaiming "Down with the Ikeda Cabinet which killed Asanuma" and "Don't permit terrorism."

It was the first major political murder in 24 years in a country where "government by assassination" was prevalent before World War II. But it was the third political stabbing by a rightist fanatic in four months—the other victims recovered—and it raised fears that ultranationalist terrorism once again is becoming a major factor in political life.

Asanuma, 61, was in the midst of a speech when Yamaguchi rushed from the left side of the stage and struck twice with his sword. Asanuma staggered two or three steps, held his chest, mumbled some words and collapsed on the blood-spattered stage.

Conservative Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda was sitting less than two yards away.

At the hospital doctors administered oxygen and a heart stimulant, but he was dead when he reached the operating table.

The slaying gave the left wing a martyr and could help the Socialists in the campaign to cut down the conservatives' strong parliamentary majority next month.

Meet to Discuss Rat Problem

Would you like to see a rat control program set up in Hempstead County? A meeting to discuss plans for setting up the program will be held at 1:30 p. m., Thursday, October 13, in the small courtroom of the county courthouse according to Calvin J. Caldwell, County Agent.

Leroy Gray, Extension Service Wildlife Specialist, Lowell Lankford, Extension Pathologist, and Luther Buehler, with the U.S. Wildlife Service, will explain the program.

Rats waste thousands of bushels of grain, destroy sacks, kill young chickens and carry diseases.

Jury to Probe for Vote Fraud in 19th Dist.

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—Grand jurors in Lonoke and Prairie counties will be asked to investigate alleged vote frauds in the disputed 19th Senatorial District Democratic primary election.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner, who is hearing a suit contesting the election, said Tuesday he would order the grand jury studies to determine who is responsible for several apparently fraudulent actions in connection with the election.

"This is the worst situation I've ever seen in the two counties," said Waggoner, circuit judge for 34 years.

The suit in Prairie Circuit Court was filed by J. T. Gunter of Austin, challenging the outcome of the election, which according to certified returns from the four-county district gave State Sen. Jerry J. Scretton of Hazen the nomination in the Aug. 9 runoff.

The suit is a civil action and could not result in prosecution of any persons responsible for vote fraud.

Testimony to date has indicated that a number of voting records in the two counties had been tampered with, but there has been no indication of who was responsible for it.

Scretton's attorneys Tuesday questioned five members of a Lonoke Democratic Central Committee subcommittee which certified the county returns. All said there had no knowledge of what caused discrepancies between the certifications and the number of votes poll workers said had been cast.

Gunter, in his suit, asked to have all Prairie County ballots thrown out, but Waggoner indicated he would void only fraudulent or otherwise improper votes. On that basis Gunter took a 1,129-vote lead after a hearing in Des Arc.

The hearing then shifted here to hear Scretton's countercharges of alleged improprieties in the Lonoke County vote. Scretton has produced evidence that some vote totals were increased and also that some ineligible persons cast ballots.

Prairie, Scretton's home county, provided the margin which made him the apparent victor. Gunter carried his home Lonoke County by a wide margin.

Favors State Minimum Wage Act

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Development Commission favors a state minimum wage and hour proposal, but it said the measure to be on the November ballot had some objectionable features.

The AIDC announced its stand Tuesday. It said a resolution was passed Friday supporting the wage and hour measure. But the resolution added that the proposal would "give the labor commissioner the power to conduct uncontrolled investigations into private business and excessive power to make rules and regulations which would be detrimental to industrial development."

Other AIDC resolutions supported proposed Amendment 50, which would double the ceiling on salaries of public officials, and proposed Amendment 51, which would provide additional mileage for cities for capital improvements. Both also are on the November ballot.

The AIDC also passed a resolution commending Marion and Baxter counties for successful completion of arrangements for a new shirt factory there, to employ some 1,500 persons.

Insurance Rate Drop in Hope Possible

The Arkansas Inspection and Rating Bureau has completed a survey of the city's fire defenses and we're hoping the results will eventually pave the way for lower fire rates in Hope, City Manager Garland G. Medders told Hope Kiwanis club yesterday.

The bureau rates all cities in Arkansas under 25,000 population. At present, Hope has a Class D rating which it obtained in 1955 after making certain improvements in fire defenses.

Many items enter into a city's fire rating, such as the fire department's equipment, number of firemen, water pressure, and many other things, Mr. Medders pointed out.

He spoke on a program arranged by Charles Turley in observance of Fire Prevention Week, October 9 to the 15. He cited figures from the National Bureau of Fire Underwriters Association which he said last year totaled more than a billion dollars less in the United States, with a resultant death total of 11,300.

He appealed for greater safety in homes, and said that statistics showed three out of every four dwelling fires were caused by carelessness.

Light Plane Is Missing Off Wake Isle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Fargo, N. D., plane forced down at sea off Wake Island in a single-engine plane is missing and a search is under way, the Coast Guard was advised today.

Another Fargo plane safely landed its single-engine plane at Wake. The two were attempting a nonstop flight from Oakland, Calif., to Manila.

The Coast Guard, relaying reports received in San Francisco from a search rescue coordinator on Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands said a Coast Guard crash boat, after earlier being rebuffed by reefs, took in tow the plane in which Lt. Duane Stirling, 27, went down Tuesday night about three miles north of Wake.

A pinpoint of light during the night in the same area might have been from a flashlight carried by Stirling. A search of the area was negative.

Stirling's companion, Capt. Charles Finnegan, 30, landed on Wake.

The two had been in the air more than 30 hours and were past the halfway mark of their effort.

Sentenced in Insurance Fraud Case

Tuesday morning, Judge Lyle Brown sentenced Francis Halley of Denison, Texas, to the Arkansas Penitentiary on charges of obtaining money on false pretenses from elderly persons in Clark, Nevada, Hempstead and Lafayette Counties. Halley claimed to represent Blue Cross-Blue Shield but did not and obtained almost $800 over a period of about a month.

The Sheriff's office and the Prosecuting Attorney's office have a nagging with records of insurance salesmen obtaining payments on policies and the policies not being delivered promptly, or only after lengthy delay.

Every person purchasing insurance is urged to require the salesman to show his state license to sell in Arkansas and other proper identification to show that he is at that time working for the company. Checks should be made to the company and a receipt showing full details and the agent's full name and address should be required in every case.

In other action Robert Thomas was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary after pleading guilty to burglary. Four years were suspended. Thomas admitted to getting money from Rodden's Service Station here last week.

James Alton Schoe, pleaded guilty to grand larceny and was sentenced to three years. He admitted to burglary of Hair & Lingo's car lot.

U. S. to Try to Settle GE Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The Federal Government's top mediator will head new peace discussions Thursday between the General Electric Co. and the striking International Union of Electrical Workers.

Mediators met for the third time with both sides Tuesday and reported no progress in settling the strike, now in its second week.

The conciliation team already on the scene was joined by Walter A. Maggione, national director of federal mediation.

The IUE called a strike of its 77,000 members in 55 GE plants Oct. 2.

Production was at a virtual standstill in GE's key plant at Schenectady, N. Y., and was hampered at Syracuse, N. Y., Lynn and Pittsfield, Mass., and some other points.

While much of the picket line skirmishes that marked the early days of the strike have diminished, some violence was reported at widely scattered plants.

The IUE has filed two charges of unfair labor practice against the company, and Tuesday GE retaliated by filing with the National Labor Relations Board a similar charge against the union. The company accused the IUE of refusing to bargain "in good faith."

Nikita Again to Blast U. S. in UN Speech

By RELMAN MORIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Premier Khrushchev, slung by a steamroller setback in the U.N. General Assembly, was expected to return today to oratorical battlefront where he faces another in a succession of painful defeats. A high Soviet source said Khrushchev likely would be on hand for the afternoon session to press his demand that the full assembly discuss his charge of U. S. aggression with regard to intelligence plane flights.

The Soviet chief appeared to be gripped by an almost apoplectic fury when the disarmament vote went heavily against him. He openly talked of rockets and war.

"Time is running out for him—unless he changes his mind about flying back to Moscow Thursday night."

He has been beaten down repeatedly in the General Assembly, the latest setback coming Tuesday night in spite of a raging, threatening speech demanding that disarmament be debated at once by the Assembly without preliminary committee consideration.

The 99-nation assembly voted 54-13 with 31 abstentions against Khrushchev's demand. Then it voted 61-12 with 24 abstentions to debate the issue in the Political Committee. Voting with the Soviet bloc on the first question were Afghanistan, Mali and fellow-traveling Guinea and Cuba. Afghanistan abstained on the second vote.

Today, the Assembly discussed Soviet demands to bypass committee consideration of two more Soviet resolutions. The U.N. Steering Committee has recommended that both be debated by the Political Committee before they come to the assembly.

One resolution charges the United States with aggressive actions against the Soviet Union, mentioning world peace. It is based on the American U-2 plane shot down over Soviet territory and the RB47 shot down off the north coast of the Soviet Union.

The other calls for a declaration by the assembly that all "colonial countries and peoples" should be granted independence immediately. In an earlier speech Khrushchev said all peoples should have immediate freedom regardless of whether they are ready for it.

Khrushchev claimed the assembly rostrum twice during Tuesday's debate on when disarmament should be debated first.

His first statement was quiet and reasoned. As expected, he urged a special summit session of the Assembly be convened, somewhere in Europe and early in 1961, to discuss disarmament alone. He said American preoccupation with the presidential election precludes the United States from assuming "any new important obligations" on disarmament.

Western delegates opposed this proposition. Hours later Khrushchev suddenly demanded the rostrum again.

He lumbered onto the dais and began to storm.

He seemed to take the position that the West was trying to frighten him.

"We won't be bullied. We won't be scared," he thundered. "If you want to compete with us in the armaments race, we will beat you at that. Our rockets come out like sausages from the machine. Do you want to try us out?"

He seemed to take the position that the West was trying to frighten him.

Fugitive May Have Been Seen

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—State Police converged on the Port Douglas area in north Johnson County today after fugitives Joe Hilderbrand and Melvin Campbell were reported there.

The fugitives were last seen about one mile east of Port Douglas near state Highway 123.

Earlier, State Police said, they invaded a forestry town at Devils Knob, about five miles north of Port Douglas, and forced the lower watchman, Melvin Campbell, to feed them.

Then they fled in a car, taking Campbell and another unidentified hostage believed to be Campbell's wife, with them.

The hostages later were reported free and unharmed.

State Police said both Hilderbrand and Miss Standridge are armed with 30-30 rifles.

Hilderbrand, 24, has been the object of a full-scale manhunt for the past 16 days. He has been wanted since last November, when he failed to return to the Arkansas State Prison Farm after an emergency furlough.

The search for him did not get serious, however, until after Miss Standridge joined him in hiding Sept. 5.

The couple was spotted at least once before during the hunt and police have tracked them by a trail of stolen cars and burglaries.

The reported aid on the Devils Knob lower, would be the first time they have used arms to obtain food.

Bandit Gang to Trial in California

MERCED, Calif. (AP)—Three admitted members of a red light bandit gang that terrorized motorists from California to Arkansas will be tried here—frustrating a Texas district attorney who wants to ask the death penalty for two of them.

Dist. Atty. Frank Clayton of El Paso Tuesday tried to extradite Elton Hale, 41, a Livermore, Calif., hog rancher; and E. J. Minor, 31, both ex-convicts from Arkansas. Clayton said he wanted Hale and Minor for sexual attacks, robberies and beatings in Texas.

But Dist. Atty. Stephen Calvin of Merced County refused to release them and issued complaints charging the two with kidnapping, robbery and sex perversion. A similar charge was filed against Hale's cousin, J. O. Hale.

The charges resulted from a May 20 robbery of two women and a girl in the Pacheco Hills.

Authorities said J. O. Hale is not believed involved in the Southwest robberies. A man now being held in Yuma, Ariz., Leroy Conates, took part in those, officers said.

The robberies include one of a Birmingham couple near Forrest City, Ark., last month.

Car Plunges Off Bridge, 5 Persons Die

LOCAMONTAS, Ark. (AP)—A father and three young daughters drowned Tuesday night when their car plunged off an open bridge into Current River near here. A fifth person may have been in the car, police said.

The body of A. P. Donaldson, Sr., 67, of near Glenwood, Ark., and the bodies of the three girls and the bodies of the three girls pulled out about an hour and a half after it smashed through two barricades and dropped into the water.

The first police report said a fifth person, possibly a woman, was in the car. But Mrs. Donaldson was located at her home by Deputy Sheriff Jewell Cox, who said, however, a son might have been along. Cox reported.

Police were dragging the river for a possible fifth victim.

The police report apparently was based on the belief that the man would not have been traveling alone with the young girls, aged about 2, 4 and 6.

State Trooper Pete Davis said the mishap occurred where an old and new bridge stand side by side on Highway 67 seven miles north of here. One bridge has the center span missing, he said.

Evans said the car ran through a barricade on the highway and another on the bridge before toppling into the water some 120 feet from the bank.

The car, its lights still burning, was found in about 10 feet of water.

Two unidentified Negro men who saw the car plunge alerted police, but a wrecker and diving crews had to be summoned to remove the vehicle.

Cox said Mrs. Donaldson told him the father and girls had been in Indiana, where he had been a farm worker.

Quemoy Plan Is Defended by Kennedy

By JOE HALL
NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy today defended his policy on Quemoy and Matsu in a sidewalk interview on his way to have breakfast with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Democratic presidential candidate was accompanied along the way by William Vanden Heuvel, Democratic candidate for Congress from Manhattan's 17th District.

Vanden Heuvel disclosed to reporters that he had sent a telegram to Secretary of State Christian Herter asking for confirmation of a report that the State Department is negotiating with the Chinese Nationalist government on Pormosa for withdrawal of troops and civilians from Quemoy and Matsu, tiny islands off the Chinese Communist coast.

Vanden Heuvel said that Rep. John V. Lindsay, R-N.Y., had said in a debate with him Monday night that he and other members of Congress had been informed the department's policy was to urge a Nationalist withdrawal from the offshore islands.

Kennedy reiterated his stand that the offshore islands had been declared strategically indefensible by top military leaders and that the United States should not risk a world war by committing itself to their defense.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Kennedy's Republican opponent for the presidency, has called this a policy on the road to war and surrender.

The dispute between Kennedy and Nixon over the defense of Quemoy and Matsu erupted in their second TV debate last week. Nixon said he completely disagreed with Kennedy and made fresh attacks on Kennedy's position in speeches out West Tuesday.

Kennedy meanwhile said "one of the great political myths of our time" is an assumption of an inevitable conflict between the Democratic party and business men.

Red Premier May Not Visit Cuba at All

By JOHN SCALI

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev is reported canceling a planned visit to Cuba at this time—mainly because he fears it would backfire against the Soviet Union everywhere in Latin America.

Soviet security chiefs are also understood to have warned Khrushchev that mounting unrest and anti-Communist plotting in Cuba might imperil his personal safety. This information comes from Iron Curtain officials who are in a position to know something about the Kremlin leader's decisions and moods.

He had tentatively scheduled a three-day good-will visit to Cuba at the end of his United Nations appearance, they reported. Castro was under the impression he would come when he left New York to return to Havana 10 days ago.

But Khrushchev changed his mind, these informants said, when told his much-publicized meetings with Castro in New York already had badly hurt Soviet prestige in discussion.

Fulbright to Defense of Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., says the Chinese Communists could maneuver the United States into war "by a relatively easy exploit" if Vice President Richard M. Nixon's views on defending the Chinese offshore islands should become U. S. policy.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told a news conference Monday he thought Nixon had taken a "very risky and probably unjustified" position for the defense of Quemoy and Matsu.

The two little islands are part of Nationalist China although they are only a few miles off the Communist-controlled Chinese mainland. They are outside the treaty zone covered by a U. S.-Nationalist Chinese mutual defense pact.

Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, differed sharply on the offshore islands issue during their televised debate Friday night.

Kennedy said the United States should defend Formosa, seat of the Nationalist government, but should beware of being "dragged into a war which may lead to a world war" by defending the offshore islands if the Communists should make an all-out drive to grab them.

He said that this was something that could be discussed with the Nationalist Chinese and an arrangement made with them as to where the defense line should be drawn.

Nixon compared Kennedy's view to "woolly thinking" and said he hoped Kennedy would change his mind. He said "it isn't a question of the real estate or the people on these islands—it's a question of principle."

"We shouldn't force our Nationalist allies to get off them and give them to the Communists," he added.

In reply to newsmen's questions, Fulbright said: "I cannot believe we would go to war over those two islands just because of the principle. I don't see the justification for making

Latin America. Pictures of Khrushchev, a delighted grin on his face, hugging Castro are reported to have aroused anti-Communist and anti-Castro opposition even in countries which had sympathized with the Cuban leader's social reform programs.

Rather than risk a massive setback to his campaign to two other Latin American nations, Khrushchev decided to pass up the Cuban visit now.

Khrushchev is now reported planning to fly straight to Moscow after his 25-day New York visit ends Thursday night. He is understood to be planning to "report" to the Soviet people at a giant rally at Moscow Stadium.

In the past few days, Khrushchev has been in a grumpy, sour mood, even in private, according to these informants. He has suddenly limited his cocktail circuit appearances where for three weeks he had been seeking to win friends among neutral and uncommitted nations.

Trial of Fort Smith Judge Resumes

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—The conspiracy trial of Chancellor Franklin Wilder and three other men resumes today with indications the prosecution is about to complete its case.

Circuit Court was recessed early Monday afternoon to permit Prosecutor Lyman Mikel to study evidence presented to the grand jury which indicted the four men on charges of conspiring to induce a minor female to make statements "degrading to her name."

Other defendants are Edgar Ramsey, publisher of a Fort Smith weekly newspaper; J. O. Sellers, a supermarket operator; and Jimmy Pratt, an employee of Sellers.

The indictments stemmed from accusations made during the campaign preceding the July 26 Democratic primary in which Wilder won renomination over Fort Smith Municipal Judge James Langston. Langston was acquitted last week of a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Color Lipstick Said Harmless

WASHINGTON (AP)—The women of America may continue to buy lipsticks in their favorite colors.

The Food and Drug Administration has formally approved use of 13 specific coal-tar colors for use in cosmetics, saying it is not inconsistent with the public health.

The finding, based on animal tests over the last two years, was made as a temporary measure pending more thorough testing over the next 2½ years.

The FDA once had ordered a ban on use of the colors, saying that test rats suffered liver, kidney and blood damage from a diet which included the dyes. The law then forbade use in cosmetics of any substance which caused damage in test animals.

Lipstick makers protested that no woman would swallow anything like the amount of the colors fed to the rats, but the law provided no leeway. Congress changed the law to permit use of the dyes in quantities found to be safe.

Those quantities were fixed in Tuesday's FDA order.

"If we take the position Mr. Nixon takes, by a relatively easy exploit the Communists could maneuver us into war. I doubt it would have too much appeal either to our people or our allies."

Fulbright said Nixon had gone farther than anyone else in the Eisenhower administration on this issue. He said he preferred Kennedy's stand "until some possibility of negotiation should arise."

Nikita Says He Would Aid Defector

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev said today it is all right with him if a Soviet sailor defector stays in the United States.

"If he had approached me—I was on the same ship—I would even have furnished him with some money for the first period until he finds a job," Khrushchev said.

The Kremlin leader, in a side-walk news conference, talked about the case of Victor Jaanimets, 29, the Soviet sailor from the passenger ship Balika who asked for political asylum Monday night.

Khrushchev, in a smiling mood which contrasted with his anger Tuesday, told newsmen that he has been given a personal report on the defection.

"He either lost his way or wanted to stay. If he does, it's all right with me," he said. Khrushchev cautioned Americans against believing "because one sailor has gone over" that the United States now has an overwhelming advantage.

Khrushchev's comments represented the first high-level Soviet reaction to the case. Two Soviet Embassy diplomats talked with Jaanimets Tuesday in an effort to persuade him to return. The young sailor refused to heed their pleas, saying he was fed up with life in the Soviet Union.

State Chamber Names Melton

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Marvin Melton, Jonesboro businessman and rancher, was elected today to a second term as president of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce.

The Associated Industries of Arkansas, a chamber affiliate, named John E. Campbell of Camden as its new president.

The state chamber and the AIA conclude their annual two-day meeting here today.

Melton, during his first term, was one of the most active presidents in chamber history. He made 113 speeches over the state, promoting Arkansas economic development and his premise that the state should build itself from within.

Campbell, mill agent for International Paper Co., succeeds Ellis M. Fagan of Little Rock. Fagan was named chairman of the AIA board.

Dave Grundfest of Little Rock was re-elected chairman of the chamber's board. Kenneth Pat Wilson of Jacksonville and P. V. Watzek of Crossett were named as new vice-presidents. All other officers were re-elected.

Jaanimets was telling the FBI about Soviet spy activities in the United States. The newspaper quoted him as saying he wanted to "give whatever information I can to this great country about Russian spies."

Jaanimets has defied Soviet diplomats who have urged him to return.

He described his meeting with them at the immigration offices.

They Said It Couldn't Be Done But Columbus Proved it Could!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
I am a widower 60 years old, have two married children, a good job, and an above-average education and cultural background.

For five years I have been going with an attractive widow in her middle 50's. She also belongs to a good family, owns her own home and has some money, but no children. I have been the only man in her life since her husband's death. She says she loves me. She also says that if we do not marry soon, we must stop seeing each other although such action would make her very unhappy and ruin her life. If I marry her my life would be ruined. I am afraid once married she would start "making me over." Then there would be a divorce. This has happened to the men of my family.

I feel that if she is the right person for me, I should feel the same excitement and desire, I experienced before my first marriage. She says this is not possible regardless of whom I marry. Who is right? If I am not right in your opinion, what do you say should be the basis for a happy marriage between middle-aged people. —Quite Confused.

Dear Quite Confused: Take a lesson from Christopher Columbus, whose birthday is today. Had he been fearful of the unknown he never would have found a new world.

Why be so pessimistic? If you cared enough for the widow to go steady five years, then you must care a lot. Marriage, like everything else in life, is what you make—at any age. But don't commit the error of measuring your emotions by the yardstick of Youth Charles Langbridge Morgan, the English writer, puts it this way: "The art of living does not consist in preserving and clinging to a particular mood of happiness, but in allowing happiness to change its form without being disappointed by the change; for happiness, like a child, must be allowed to grow up."

Dear Helen:
I am 13 and consider myself quite attractive and popular. I have a boy friend, 17. I am crazy about him. He comes down just about every day but I'm beginning to think it is not to see me. He comes to the door and knocks. When my sister answers it he always talks to her, then asks for me. I thought that was all right but now he's always telling her to smile so he can see her cute dimples. They sit and stare at each other all evening.

Do you think I should let her have him even if she is going steady and is his age? If so, how should I tell him—Herald-Broken?

Dear Heartbroken: It doesn't seem to be so much a question of letting "her have him" as it is of bowing out gracefully. For from what you say, your sister, already has him. In any event, the surest way to keep your boy friend is to let him go.

Dear Helen:
I went steady with this boy (I'll call Rick) for a year. Two months ago I broke off. I just didn't want to go steady any more. About a week after we broke up he started to go around with a gang. He said that unless I went back with him nothing mattered. Three weeks ago he stole a car and because he didn't get caught, kept right on taking cars. Last Saturday his luck ran out. I know he's done wrong and so does he. He told me that he has come to his senses. If he doesn't get sent to reform school he won't go back with that gang even if I don't go back with him. My friends said I could have stopped him. I've known Rick all my life. He's never done anything wrong before.

When he started going with that gang he changed. Isn't there something I could do now? Will he be sent to reform school? Please help me.—Truly Sorry.

Dear Truly Sorry: Rick was emotionally unstable or he would have not behaved as he did. Stop blaming yourself for his warped character. Any one who steals is either sick mentally or what is worse, without conscience. Don't pin too much faith in his promise to reform.

Your guardian angel must have been watching over you when you broke with Rick.

Newspaper Shows Off New Plant

MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—The Helena World marked a milestone Monday when the 88-year-old newspaper held open house at its new modern plant.

More than 300 persons visited the new plant and congratulations came from over the nation as well as from Arkansas.

Frank J. Schatz, general manager of the Associated Press, in congratulating Charles M. Young, the publisher, sent him a photo copy of Young's first application for membership in the newsgathering organization.

The application was made in 1911, one year after Young had taken over The World.

The new building is the third occupied by the newspaper since Young became its publisher and owner.

Mrs. Young recalled Monday that the newspaper's first home burned while it was still a struggling publication.

Two of the Youngs' sons are associated with the newspaper. Jack M. Young is editor and Porter C. Young is the advertising manager.

Students Invade Korean Assembly

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Angry, shouting students today invaded the South Korean Assembly building, demanding stiffer punishment for officials of the ousted Syngman Rhee government.

Thirty students wounded in the revolution of last April, some carrying entrenches and others wearing hospital gowns, broke into the lower house before the eyes of startled lawmakers, seized the rostrum and delivered emotional speeches. Many of them were weeping. After about 20 minutes they withdrew.

Later, after the house adjourned, more than 100 youths smashed the main entrance doors and gained entrance to the empty chamber. They also withdrew after a short time.

Acquires More Tiger Stock

DETROIT (AP)—John B. Edgar, principal owner of the Detroit Tigers, today announced that two-thirds of the ball club's outstanding stock has been sold to him.

Pelzer, a Kalamazoo, Mich., radio executive, said he had concluded a preliminary agreement to buy most of the stock residing in the Kalamazoo-Brown group.

Brown is a Californian and heads the so-called "Eastern group" of Tiger owners.

Says U. S. Will Defend Base

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The commander of the Guantanamo base in Cuba says the United States would lose face all over the world if it should give up the installation to Fidel Castro's government.

Rear Adm. Frank W. Penno told Mill Sosin of the Miami News he believes there will be trouble with Castro over the base, but he doesn't know how it will develop.

"It may be that some hot head will attempt some act of sabotage," he said.

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, U. S. chief of naval operations, has said that if Cuba attempted to take the base by force "we would fight back."

Burke also said in a copyright interview published in the magazine U. S. News & World Report, if Castro moved against the base, that "we would react very fast."

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 51

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Arkansas, and by the House of Representatives, a majority of all members elected to each House agreeing thereto:

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to-wit:

SECTION 1. In addition to other powers granted by constitutional or statutory authority, cities of the first and second class may issue, by and with consent of a majority of the qualified electors of said municipality voting on the question at an election held for the purpose, bonds in sums and for the purposes approved by such majority at such election as follows:

For the payment of any indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this amendment; for the purchase of rights of way for construction of public streets, alleys, boulevards, and expressways, within the corporate limits of such municipality; for the purchase, development and improvement of public parks, airports, flying fields, and recreational facilities located either within or without the corporate limits of such municipality; for the construction of sewers and comfort stations; for the purchase of fire alarm systems; for the purchase of street police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the purchase of street and sewer cleaning equipment and apparatus; for the purchase of sites for, construction of, and equipment of city halls, auditoriums, court houses, prisons, libraries, hospitals, clinics, public abattoirs, incinerators or garbage disposal or sewage treatment plants; for building for the housing of street police or fire fighting apparatus and equipment; for the construction of viaducts and bridges; for the purpose of purchasing, extending, improving, enlarging, building, or construction of water works or light plants, and distribution systems therefor; and for the purchase of sites for, improving or equipping harbor and river terminal facilities; and for the acquisition, development, and construction of other municipal or public facilities and improvements. For the purchase, development and improvement of airports, waterworks, sewage disposal systems or any other municipal facilities which are wholly or partially located outside the boundaries of this State.

No bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall bear a greater rate of interest than six per cent per annum payable either annually or semi-annually; that is to say, the cost to the municipality for interest and discount on each issue of bonds shall not exceed six per cent per annum, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall cover the sale of public property after twenty days' advertisement in some newspaper having a bona fide circulation in the municipality issuing such bonds.

In order to provide for the payment of the bonds issued under the provisions of this amendment, and interest thereon, a special tax in addition to the legal rate permitted may be levied by municipalities on the real and personal taxable property therein. And any municipality issuing bonds shall, before or at the time of doing so, levy a direct tax payable annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as the same matures, and also sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of all such bonds at their respective maturities. The special tax permitted by this amendment shall not be subject to any constitutional limitation; provided, however, the General Assembly may by legislative act limit the rate of such taxation, which limitation shall be effective only upon a special tax levied for the payment of bonds issued after the effective date of such legislative act.

Said bonds shall be serial, maturing annually after three years from date of issue, and shall be paid off as they mature, and no bonds issued under the authority of this amendment shall be issued for a longer period than forty years.

It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council or other governing body established by law, to exercise supervision over the sale of any bonds, which may be voted by the people at an election held for that purpose and they shall expend economically the funds so provided for the specified purposes for which they were voted. Said election shall be held at such times as the city council may designate by ordinance, which ordinance shall specifically state the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, and if for more than one purpose, provisions shall be made in said ordinance for balloting on each separate purpose; which ordinance shall state the sum total of the issue, the dates of maturity thereof and shall fix the date of election so that it shall not occur earlier than thirty days after the passage of said ordinance. SECTION 1. Intelligence and virtue being the safeguards of a free and good government, it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of Arkansas that all residents of this State between the ages of six and eighteen years may, as desired by them or their parents or guardians, receive gratuitous instruction; and that the manner of administering such aid can best be determined at the local level.

SECTION 2. Financial aid to carry out the aforesaid declare policy of the people of this State shall be raised at both the State and local levels through taxation now or hereafter authorized by law. Financial aid at the State level shall be provided in such amounts, and distributed to school districts under such formula, or formulas, as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, determine; and financial aid at the local level shall be provided in such amounts as shall from time to time be determined by the qualified electors of the respective school districts.

SECTION 3. The qualified electors of each school district shall have the right to determine by their vote at a special election called for the purpose, the manner of applying the financial aid available for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years; and such instruction may be provided either: (a) through a system of free public schools whereof the district will provide the physical plant, employ instructors, and do any and all things necessary to maintain a general, suitable and efficient system of free schools to be operated by the district; or (b) through student education financial aid whereof the district will apply all available funds for the equal benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 4. Subject to such limitations as may be imposed by law, exclusive jurisdiction for the government of each school district shall be vested in a board of directors.

The proposed budget shall set forth the estimated amounts, respectively, of funds necessary: (a) to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds; (b) to meet its other contractual obligations; (c) to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

SECTION 7. Either branch of the General Assembly at a regular or special session thereof may propose amendments to this measure, and, if any such proposal be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house such proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at a special election called for the purpose by the Governor; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at such special election adopt such amendment the same shall be operative on and after the 30th day after the election at which it is approved, unless otherwise specified in the amendment. SECTION 8. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 9. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 10. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

election, then taxes shall be collected at the rate of thirty (30) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation, or at the rate approved at the next preceding annual school election, whichever rate shall be the lower figure. Provided, that no rate of tax levy shall ever be less than the aggregate of the rates of any continuing levies theretofore approved for the purpose of meeting the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds unless funds for the payment thereof shall have otherwise been specifically provided for.

SECTION 7. With respect to each school district, proposals for the issuance of bonds and for the collection of taxes at a continuing rate of levy for the payment thereof may be submitted by the board of directors for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at any annual school election; and upon petition of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district, or by resolution of the board of directors, such proposals may be submitted for the approval or disapproval of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a special election called for the purpose by the County Judge. No school district may issue bonds unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on any such proposition at a school election shall approve the same; and no bonds or other evidences of debt hereafter issued by any school district shall be secured by a lien on the property of the district, and no district may pledge any of its revenues for the payment of said bonds or other evidences of debt except revenues to be derived from the collection of taxes on taxable property within the district under a continuing rate of levy approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposition at a school election. The principal amount of any proposed bond issue may include the estimated amount of interest to be due on such bonds during the first year.

SECTION 8. The manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of any school district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed, effective immediately, from the then existing manner to any other manner authorized by Section 3 hereof, whenever the proposition of making such change shall be approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district voting on the proposition at a special school election called for that purpose by the County Judge of the county in which all or the major portion of the land area within the territorial bounds of any such district is located. The County Judge shall call such special election within thirty days after the receipt by him: (a) of a petition containing the signatures of not less than a majority of the board of directors of the district; or (b) of petitions containing the signatures of not less than ten percent of the qualified electors of the district. Provided, that not less than twelve months shall elapse after any such special election before another special election may be called for the purpose of again voting on the proposition of changing the manner of applying financial aid.

In each instance in which the manner of applying financial aid for the instruction of residents of the district between the ages of six and eighteen years shall be changed through student education financial aid, then all funds of the district, save only such funds as are necessary to meet the debt service requirements of the district's issued and outstanding bonds, to meet its other contractual obligations, and to pay insurance premiums on, and cost of maintenance or custodial care of, the district, shall be used for student education financial aid, and shall be applied equally for the benefit of all such residents for the periods of time during which they respectively receive instruction in this State.

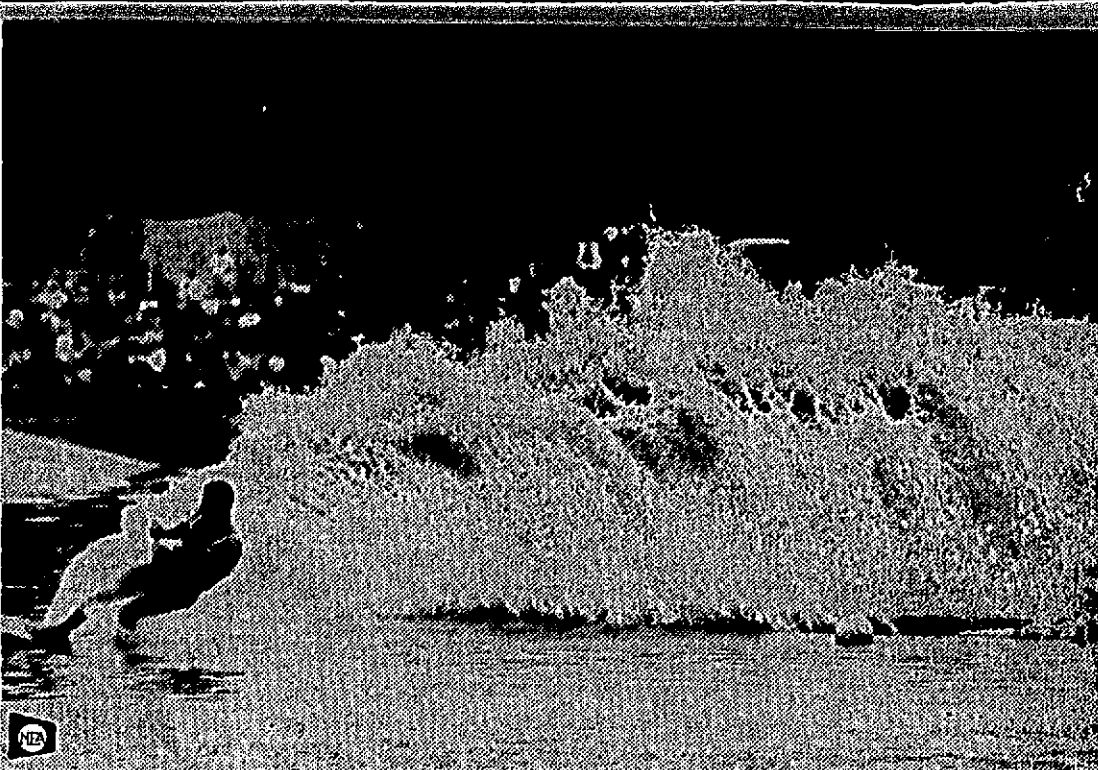

SECTION 9. The provisions of this measure are hereby declared to be severable.

SECTION 10. Article 14 and Amendments Nos. 11 and 40 to the Constitution of this State are hereby repealed.

SECTION 11. This amendment shall be self-executing, and its provisions shall be treated as mandatory, but laws shall be enacted by the General Assembly to facilitate its operation.

SECTION 12. This amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after the date of its approval at the November, 1939, General Election.

Chapter XXI

Tuesday morning, the day after the rape of the German pigeons, Paolo, dressed in civilian clothes instead of his usual Italian uniform, arrived at the Mont'Alto farm, where Luchino, Danesi and Terenzio Rossini were hiding out. "I'm on the run — a fugitive and so is Tonino. I hope he gets here. We came separately." He explained that the Germans living in his house were indeed a plant, led to the neighborhood by their radio-locating equipment, and that Tonino's other rooms had been raided by the Germans in their absence. "Thank heaven we saved the radio. He has it with him — that's why I'm worried."

They decided to lay up at the farm and, if necessary, depend on pigeons for communications. "The first two birds I liberated at dawn," Luchino said. "They circled around and flew off." As he spoke, Tonio, carrying a large market basket, came across the field. Under the greens in the basket was the radio, Paolo introduced him to Luchino and Rossini.

"I felt a fool, a frightened fool, carrying vegetables out of the city into the country. But no one questioned me." Tonio went upstairs to set up his radio. "In all this excitement," Luchino spoke to Paolo, "I forgot to say the O'Toole exchange will come off tomorrow. At four o'clock the Germans will deliver our men at the Vatican gate."

Luchino explained that he and the doctor were to leave for the farm immediately after they had word that Franceschelli and Contini were safe and sound.

"We'll release them on some small road off the Via Cassia, after dark."

"We couldn't get Contini out of the Vatican?" Paolo asked. "Tony needs him."

"No. He'll have to give his parole."

Terenzio Rossini glanced out the window. "Who is that coming across the field?"

"It's Ciccio!" Luchino went to the front door to let him in. "Come in. Come in."

"Buona sera, Signori," Ciccio puffed out of breath.

"This is our friend Paolo, Ciccio. You can talk in front of him. Sit down — you look as if you've been running. What's wrong?"

"Rosalba's fidanzato Peppino, I was out after curfew last night with Livio — to get — to get — some — some food. We weren't able to get back before curfew so we stayed out all night — in the park."

"What happened to Peppino?"

"My women — what women do! — they all began to cry and say Livio and I had been shot — or arrested. Well, they couldn't send Martino — he is at the Conte Rossini's — and my boys are all away, or prisoners, or in the army. So they sent Peppino to hunt for me. He was arrested — now my Rosalba is screaming and weeping. She blames me. Today his father — Domenico Guasli — found out he is in the German cells at the Regina Coeli Prison. He says they — he had to stop to catch his breath — he says they will shoot him or send him to Germany. He says it's my fault, Signori, I guess it is my fault."

"Was he carrying a gun or knife?" Terenzio asked.

"Per carita, no — he is not dumb. Maybe some blackmarket tobacco — that's his business." He turned to Luchino. "Can you help him, Signorino?"

"I don't see how."

"How about the Principe — his friend the General?" Terenzio addressed his suggestion to Luchino. "Possible. But what could he say?"

"That this boy's family works on one of his estates — or in one of his offices — he feels responsible. A good boy, just happened to be out — maybe doing an errand for him — some tale — the General won't bother to check on it."

"And if it's all disproven — that

Good Roads Group to Hire Chairman

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Good Roads Association, with Rabie Rhodes of Harrison its permanent chairman, hopes to hire an executive secretary and open an office within 30 days. Rhodes, temporary chairman since the organization was formed earlier this year, was named to the permanent office Monday. Other officers are J.B. Lambert, Helena, vice president; E.L. Huff, Newport, secretary; and Leon B. Catlett, Little Rock, treasurer.

Although known for centuries as a country that stayed out of the many wars that swirled around it Switzerland nevertheless maintains a reserve army of 600,000 trained men who can be mobilized within a few hours. They are permitted to keep their guns and other army equipment within their homes so they can respond ready for immediate action.

Via Bologna, 27. Aged 23, you say. "He picked up the telephone and dialed a number."

"Thank you — you know all this is not without danger for you," Rossini said.

"Danger!" answered the old man, hurriedly covering the mouthpiece. "The more, than 20 years you fellows — fellows like Rossi and Danesi pere and your self — have been in danger. I've sat here clearly shirking my duty."

World Series Could End If Pirates Win

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh can wrap up its first world championship since 1925 today by beating the desperate New York Yankees in the sixth World Series game at spacious Forbes Field.

Bob Friend, winner of 18 games in the regular season but a loser in the playoffs, will lead the Yankees in the second game, while Manager Danny Murtaugh's choice to complete the gallant comeback by the fighting Bucs, everybody on the staff, except Vern Law, was available for bullpen duty.

Casey Stengel leaped toward Whitey Ford, his experienced lefty, to bail out the Yankees in their backs-to-the-wall situation. Ford pitched a shutout Saturday, 8-0, but was forced to leave the game, along with the rest of the staff, because of a sore throat.

Stengel's lineup was subject to last-minute changes. He was expected to play Yogi Berra in left field, Cleve Boyer on third base and Elston Howard as catcher. If Stengel used Ford, Murtaugh would shift from catcher Smokey Burgess to Hal Smith.

Fair, warm weather was on tap, with the temperature due to hit 75 by the time the crowd of 37,000 had settled down in the ancient ball park.

The Pirates were favored 4-1 to win the series, although the Yankees were picked at 6-5 for today's game.

If the Yankees square the series, the seventh game will be played in the same park Thursday afternoon with Law pitching for the Pirates and rookie Bill Stalford the likely starter for the Yankees.

Mickey Mantle, who needed only one more home to match Babe Ruth's all-time series record of 15, was hobbled by a recurrence of the groin injury he suffered in late season. Mantle took a few cuts Tuesday when the club worked out, but the Pirates' drill but did no running.

"The Yankees appeared grimly determined to get back into this series with big money riding on every pitch."

"My men are not dead," said Stengel. "We may not talk too much, but we're pretty good, too. We've been going at a pretty good speed for a month—until the last two games. I hope we're a little live for you."

Charcoal is almost pure carbon.

Longhorns Are Warned About Porks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Texas and Arkansas Monday focused their football attention along the same channel — whether or not the Razorbacks' Lance Alworth will be able to play in Saturday's game.

The fleet halfback, Arkansas' most dangerous runner, reinjured a bruised knee against Baylor last week and was sidelined in the second half.

Arkansas and Texas clash Saturday in one of the feature games of the Southwest Conference.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said Monday that Alworth will make a "big difference" if he's able to play, but word from the Porks' camp said Alworth's recovery by Saturday is doubtful.

Meanwhile, the Razorbacks ran through a losing — up drill and worked on fundamentals and offensive and defensive assignments.

At Austin, the Longhorns were told by Royal that Arkansas can beat Texas "even if we play a good game."

He said Arkansas will be the best team the Steers have met this year.

Texas A&M Coach Jim Myers worked his Aggies on offensive and defensive adjustments, criticizing the squad for "missing too many tackles" against Houston last week. Houston beat the Aggies 17-0.

Texas Christian, A & M's opponent Saturday, was confronted with a problem similar to Arkansas'. The Horned Frogs were wondering whether tackle Robert Lilly, an All-America candidate, will be on hand for the game.

Lilly suffered a hip bruise in the Frogs' 21-7 victory over Texas Tech last Saturday and worked out Monday without pads.

Southern Methodist, which finally got around to scoring, worked on kicking and looked ahead to its southwest conference opener with Rice.

The Ponies registered their first lurchdown Saturday in a 26-7 loss to Navy.

At Lubbock, Texas Tech's Red Raiders had mixed emotions on their physical condition. Halfback Dan Gurley apparently has recovered from an ankle injury but Larry Tipton, a second unit halfback, is out with a pair of cracked ribs.

Baylor worked briefly in a dummy scrimmage and then retired to watch game films of its 28-14 triumph over Arkansas. Baylor meets Tech Saturday.

Coeach Jess Nely at Rice moved two reserve tackles—both untested this season—to guard to fill a gap created when three top guards were injured.

Making the switch are tackles Dickie Woods and Charles Boatman. The three top guards, who suffered knee injuries against Florida last week, are starters Rufus King and Bobby Lively and second-stringer Walter Ligon.

Undeclared Juniors to Play Nashville

Thursday night at 7:30 the Hope Bobkittens will play host to the Nashville Junior Scrappers. This will be the fourth game for the Kittens, and thus far they are undefeated.

The Junior Scrappers will be coming strong and, as usual, will be up for this game. They want to avenge the 13-0 defeat which the Bobkittens handed them last year. This defeat spoiled an otherwise undefeated season. At present, they have a record of 3 wins and 1 loss.

Coach Gordon Beasley's Bobkittens have been rapidly improving in the past two years. This indicates two better than average Bobcat teams soon. Last year the Kittens went undefeated, and were the first Hope Junior team to do this. This year, with Coach Billy Mitchell and Coach Beasley, they are well on their way down the undefeated road. The Kittens, so far, have defeated Prescott 26-0, Texarkana 13-12, and Camden 13-7.

Coach Beasley only had his usual pessimistic comment, "It's going to be a tough game."

The Booster Club has supported this team very well with new uniforms and equipment, and there have been exceptionally good crowds at all of the Junior games. You are invited tomorrow night to see a different type of football, and are promised an exciting game.

Nationalists React to Stand

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Nationalist China reacted sharply today to the view of Democratic presidential candidate Sen. John F. Kennedy on defending the offshore islands.

Defense Minister Yu Ta-wei said "rightly like hell for Quemoy and Matsu" because they are "an integral part of the only China that the United States recognizes."

During a political debate in the United States four days ago, Vice President Richard M. Nixon said the islands lie "in the area of freedom."

Nixon said that as president he would never force the Nationalists to give them up.

Kennedy said he believes in defense of Formosa but thinks it strategically wrong to try to defend the outer islands. Kennedy said that according to some American military leaders the islands cannot be defended.

Picks Porkers to Lose Sat. to Longhorns

NEW YORK (AP) — In fourteen hundred ninety-two, Columbus sailed the ocean blue.

He landed 468 years ago today amidst great confusion. Some of the confusion still exists but it is concentrated primarily among football forecasters. So great was the confusion last week that 17 incorrect picks were scattered among 34 others that were exactly on the button. That cut the season's average to .730.

This week's selections: Mississippi over Tulane; The Rebels; Jake Gibbs is an outstanding quarterback and has accounted for 533 yards, personally, in Mississippi's four straight triumphs this year. He's too much for Tulane to handle.

Down over Wisconsin. Two teams that have done better than expected, but the Hawkeyes speed will prevail.

Ohio State over Purdue; Bob Ferguson, the Ohio State fullback, is 217 pounds of pure dynamite. The Boilermakers present a leaky defense.

Syracuse over Penn State. A Syracuse official called the defending national champions "fat and complacent" after their squeaker win over Holy Cross. Penn State will pay the penalty.

Navy over Air Force. A personal duel between the Midwestern Joe Bolling and the Falcons' Rich Mayo. Bolling will get the more help.

Missouri over Kansas State. With the greatest of ease.

Baylor over Texas Tech; by about two touchdowns.

Clemson over Maryland; The Carolina Tigers get revenge for the 28-25 setback of a year ago. It could go the other way.

Kansas over Oklahoma; Oklahoma has lost only one conference game in 13 years. The second loop defeat will be delivered Saturday with John Had and Bert Con doing the heavy work.

Elsewhere: Minnesota over Illinois; Texas over Arkansas; Washington over UCLA; Michigan State over Notre Dame; Tennessee over Alabama; Oregon State over Idaho; Arizona State over Brigham Young; Auburn over Georgia Tech.

Key Figures Far Apart on Peace Path

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Premier Khrushchev's words and attitudes during his visit to the U.N. General Assembly illuminate a basic obstacle in the path toward real peace. The Communists and Western parliamentary democracies are worlds apart in their conceptions of what the United Nations should be.

Khrushchev told the assembly Tuesday the United Nations was created for the discussion of disputes and for "solving important problems of ensuring peace."

The Soviet view apparently is this: If at the United Nations can discuss and can agree, but it cannot either police or enforce agreements.

When the United Nations first came into being, Western leaders viewed it as a step toward the old dream of a parliament of man that would forever outlaw war and mass bloodshed.

Thus, the West—and particularly the English-speaking peoples—regards the United Nations as a sort of parliament whose decisions have the force of authority.

But there are no parliaments in the Communist world. Those bodies which are called parliaments can do nothing but talk, discuss and agree. Decisions are reached at the higher government levels.

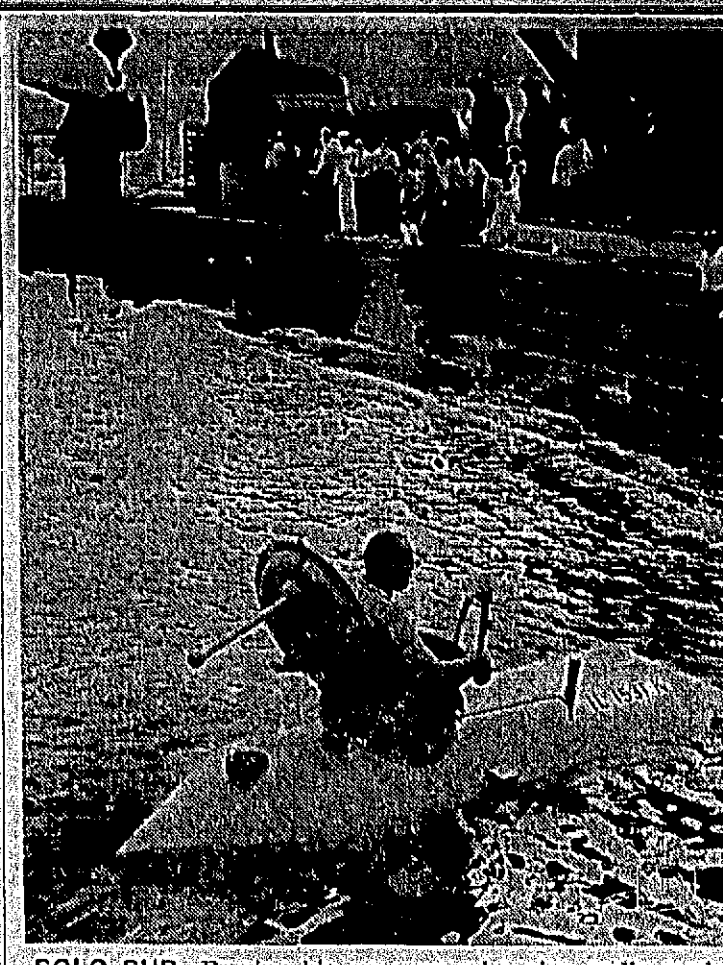

How does Khrushchev view the United Nations then? He told a meeting of U.N. correspondents Friday: "This is not a parliament. It is a forum in which questions should be resolved, but in such a way as not to endanger the interests of even a single state among those that make up this forum."

The rule of the majority, which is the foundation of Western Parliamentary democracies, is a puzzle to the Russians, who have had no experience with it. Theirs is strictly a rule of the minority.

Injuries to Porkers May Prove Costly

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Injuries have knocked a big kink in University of Arkansas hopes in Saturday's football game against Texas.

End and kickoff specialist Les Letsinger and offensive center Billy Gramlich Tuesday joined top halfback Lance Alworth on the sidelines.

Letsinger, who had been slated to pick up Alworth's punting chores, went out with a black injury suffered against Texas Christian, which has become progressively worse. Gramlich was felled by severe bruises on the shin of his right leg.

All three are doubtful for the Texas game, although Alworth might be used for punting should his bruised knee improve sufficiently. The knee, first injured against TCU, was reinjured against Baylor last week.

The punting now apparently will fall to Norman Lewis, considered a kicking specialist, though he hasn't booted the ball in a game this year.

Hoover Evans will move into Letsinger's spot at end with the Wild Hogs. Gramlich's chore with the Big Red will fall to Jerry Lineberger.

Jarrell and Darrell Williams probably will be the Big Red halfbacks, assuming Alworth doesn't play. Harold Horton and Jim Werthington are working as Wild Hog halfbacks.

Heart Attack Fatal to Man

GILMORE, Ark. (AP) — Thomas Clinton Williams, the 44-year-old mayor whose Negro night club was closed by a group of citizens, died Tuesday of a heart attack at his home.

Williams had been mayor since this east Arkansas town was incorporated five years ago.

His nightclub later was reopened. The citizens got a court order to close it temporarily.

He met the royal couple at National Airport after their flight from Chicago in Eisenhower's personal plane.

The king in reply called Eisenhower a "close and true friend of Denmark."

Three Towns Okay Bonds for Gas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters in Lake City, Canby and Black Oak Monday approved natural gas bond issues. Only four negative votes were cast in the Craighead County towns, with 416 favorable votes.

The vote in Lake City on a $121,000 bond issue was 215-0, in Canby on a $147,000 issue 141-1, and in Black Oak on a $45,000 issue 69-3.

The communities will enter into lease contracts with Arkansas Power Co. of Fayetteville to install the systems. The power firm will have an option to buy them.

HEALTH HINTS

By DR. CHARLES JOHNSON
"CHIROPRACTOR"

HOW IS YOUR SPINE?

People are frequently unaware of spinal curvatures or displacements. These conditions do not always produce pain or discomfort in the back unless there is acute backache. More frequently, the effects are observed at some distant point, such as the arms, legs, or head, or in one or more of the vital organs. For this simple reason people may not understand the necessity of consulting a Chiropractor, in that no pain is felt in the backbone. However, they do find when they have a spinal analysis that examination elicits tenderness of the spine in the areas involved.

It pays to have your spine checked by a Chiropractor. In this way future health and pain may be avoided.

Lumumba Is Still Problem in the Congo

By DAVID MASON

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Opposing troops with machineguns faced each other around the home of Patrice Lumumba today as the Congo's ruling government commission threatened an army uprising unless U.N. forces hand over the deposed premier.

Machinegunners of Ghana's U.N. contingent mounted a protective guard around the controversial ex-premier and prevented the execution of the arrest warrant for Lumumba signed by President Joseph Kasavubu.

Congo army troops formed an outer cordon around Lumumba's residence, keeping him a prisoner inside while the government commission and the U.N. Command wrangled over his fate.

Justin Bomboko, head of the commission appointed by army chief Col. Joseph Mobutu, renewed demands upon the U. N. Command Tuesday night for permission to serve an arrest warrant and said Congolese troops intended to take Lumumba into custody.

Any U.N. interference, he said, would set off an army uprising throughout the Congo, and this "could start a war in the Congo and a world war."

But he did not set a deadline for Lumumba's surrender. He said he was waiting for further word from U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold.

The U.N. Command declined to deliver Lumumba on the grounds that under the Congo's temporary constitution, Parliament must approve the arrest of one of its members.

Rice Crop Seen as About Same

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 1960 rice crop of 12,639,000 hundred-pound bags has been predicted for Arkansas by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

If such a crop materializes, it would be identical with the state's 1959 production.

The department Tuesday forecast a nationwide rice crop of 53,363,000 hundredweight compared to 53,122,000 hundredweight last year.

Arkansas soybean production was estimated at 54,560,000 bushels against 56,791,000 bushels last year.

The national crop was forecast at 561,922,000 bushels against 537,895,000 bushels in 1959.

IN MEMORIAM—Miss Balbine Schwarz, of Houston, Tex., has found a way to thank the World War II dead of her adopted country. She spent more than a year creating a 28x30-inch mosaic tablet inscribed with the Ten Commandments in Hebrew. The tablet was accepted by the American Memorial Cemetery for placement in the St. Avold Cemetery in Lorraine, France. Miss Schwarz came to America in 1920 from her native Germany, where 65 of her relatives were wiped out by the Nazis.

Estonian in Defiance of Soviet Pleas

NEW YORK (AP)—The young Estonian sailor who fled Soviet Premier Khrushchev's own ship has defied Soviet diplomats who urged him to return.

Victor Jaanimets, 29, described the dramatic confrontation at immigration headquarters Tuesday.

"At first I refused to see them, but inasmuch as they requested once more to see me I said I would talk to them," he said.

"Both of them asked me whether I was forced to make my decision. I told them, 'No. Nobody forced me. I made my decision a long time ago.'

"They said, 'So in other words this is your will, your wish.' They said every Soviet citizen has the right to decide where he will live. And I told them, 'Your remark doesn't reflect the truth. It is a lie.'

The Soviet officials were Victor Ozipov, second secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, and Valeri Kravchenko, an embassy attaché.

The slim, light-haired, seaman slipped away from a five-man shore party during a shopping and sightseeing expedition in Manhattan Monday afternoon.

After calling Estonia refugee groups, he was taken to the immigration office.

An Immigration Service official said Jaanimets would remain in custody while "a few matters are being checked."

The Burma Road, wartime supply line to China, extended 750 miles from Lashio in Burma to Kunming in China's Yunnan Province.

Cuban Trial Bars All Reporters

SANTA CLARA, Cuba (AP)—The biggest conspiracy trial of the Fidel Castro regime rolled on here today behind doors closed to all foreign newsmen except four Russians.

Newsmen counted 170 defendants about a dozen of them in military uniform, who entered the courtroom at the trial opening Tuesday. Defense attorneys said more than 200 were on trial.

The accused are charged with waging armed rebellion in the Escambray Mountains or with collaborating with the insurgents.

Among those on trial was an American identified by the semi-official newspaper Revolution as Richard Pecoraro of Staten Island, N. Y.

A New York City fireman by that name was fired from his job earlier this year after overstaying his leave on a trip to Cuba.

A second military tribunal at Santiago in eastern Cuba, was to begin hearing evidence today against 21 men the government says invaded the northeast coast of Cuba last week. They included another American identified as Anthony Zarba.

The Armed Forces Ministry announced Tuesday night that only five of the 27-man landing party was still at large. The leader previously had been reported killed.

Car Abandoned

NEW CANAAN, Conn. (AP)—A 1949 model car with California license plates was found abandoned Monday night on the Merritt Parkway with a note that said: "Please give it a decent burial."

State troopers towed it to a garage.

Dangerous Hissing

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP)—Patrolman H. E. Plexico was giving a motorist directions when he heard a noise—like a leaking tire. Looking down at the motorist's tires, Plexico saw a copperhead snake near his feet, whipped out his revolver, shot the snake, and then finished giving directions.

Arkansas Program for Aged Delayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas may not start a new federally-assisted medical care program for the aged until July 1, but a decision on the type of program it will be made in the next 10 days.

Assistant Welfare Commissioner A.J. Moss said Tuesday that the Department has been conferring with Mrs. Val Keating of Dallas, Tex., regional representative of the federal Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Mrs. Keating said it is up to the states to decide what type of program to set up. Arkansas can get $4 in federal aid for each $1 it puts up.

But Moss said a legislative appropriation would be needed to finance the program, so it may not start until the beginning of the new fiscal year July 1. He said the decision is up to Gov. Orval E. Faubus and that the legislature, which meets in January, could provide funds to start it earlier.

Family Slayer Gets 15 Years

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Gary Earl Bright, who killed three members of his own family, but never went to prison, will have to serve a 15-year penitentiary term for the pipe-wrench-slugging of his step-mother.

The 15-year-old Bentonville youth pleaded guilty Monday in Benton Circuit Court to the assault on Mrs. Alden Kathleen Webb Bright, 33 at their farm home last July 22. Judge Maupin Cummings set the sentence.

Earlier he had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity, but the State Hospital ruled he was sane.

The State Hospital also ruled him sane after he shot and killed his mother, Jewell Irene, 35, a sister, 5-year-old Bobby in November of 1957. He also shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle but recovered.

Bright was sent to a St. Louis, Mo., juvenile home for about a year after the slayings, then released to his father, Earl Bright, 39. The father was not home when either of the attacks occurred.
